STOCK AND CROP.

—Earl Ferguson sold to James Ferguson, 70 barrels of corn at $2.

—A Garrard county tobacco grower averaged $125 an acre for his tobacco crop.

—Abnee & Musinon bought of M. S. Mines, 15,000 pounds of tobacco, at $8.50.

—M. B. Wilson, of Cane Ridge, sold to Abnee & Musinon, about 14,00 lbs. of tobacco, at $8.10.

—Tom Bristow, of Elizabeth, sold to Claude Redmon, a crop of 7 acres of tobacco, at about 8 cents.

—R. H. Parks, of Elizabeth, sold 140 mules to a St. Louis party for $18,000. They will be shipped to Cuba.

—Abnee & Musinon bought of W. P. Mansfield, of Cane Ridge, a crop of 5,365 pounds of tobacco at 7½ and 8 cents.

—Mr. J. T. Huguey sold to C. S. Brent, of Lexington, 900 bushels of millet seed at 72 cents.—Danville Advocate.

—Col. John Cunningham, of Cunningham Station, has an offer to lease his farm to a gentleman who desires to mine for lead.

—James Hulet, of Jessamine, raised 24,000 pounds of tobacco from 12 acres of ground, getting 12½ cents a pound for the crop.

—Forty-one acres of land belonging to Mrs. Alice Gilkey, lying East of North Middletown, was sold Tuesday to Ed. Rice, for $80 per acre.

—It is reported that the stallion Alfred Star, 2:14½, by Alfred G., 2:19¾, dam by Mambrino King, has been sold by Brook Curry to T. C. Jefferson for $2,000.

—J. W. Bocon, of this city, sold to J. W. Mowry, of Holt, Mo., the 3-year-old colt, Blueskin, by Jay Bird, out of a mare by Scurlet Wilkes. Blueskin will be put in the stud by his new owner.

—J. A. Cain, of Woodford county, has on exhibition an ear of corn grown in Clark county that contains thirty-four rows of grain. The average size cob contains from fifteen to twenty rows.

—Black Minorea hens are gaining in popularity every day as egg producers, their eggs being larger than those of the White Leghorns, the next birds in laying. The two kinds lay about the same number of eggs.

—A sample of the tobacco raised under canvas at the State College farm at Lexington last year will be taken to the Maysville Corn and Tobacco Fair to be held in February. Prof. Seavell will address the growers of tobacco under canvas.

—A Kansas firm has just completed a chicken fattening house with a capacity of 5,000 chickens, and by a new process and instrument will be used for forcing prepared food down the throats of chickens. This process will add three pounds to each bird in three weeks. One man can feed 300 chickens an hour.

—The Glasgow Times says buyers are scouring the county in search of mules. Advices from the southern markets say traders are selling mules as fast as they can put halters on them and planters are taking them at any price asked. What is true of mules also applies to horses. Smooth, sound, high-stepping Eastern horses are scarce and bring anywhere from $150 to $500, while blocky Southern horses are in strong demand at $100 to $175.

—Kentucky excels in tobacco and hemp, the best paying crops grown by farmers, is noted for live stock, is rapidly becoming foremost as an oil producing State and will soon rank high in coal mining. Millions of capital have come into the State to develop industries and every effort should be made to induce further investments. Men of affairs should be elected as law makers and every law now on the statute books detrimental to capital or trade should be repealed.—Kentucky Farm Journal.

The headquarters of the Democrat's State Executive Committee will be at Mt. Sterling until April 1st.

It has come to pass that the man who purloins a bucket of coal can insist upon being tried under a charge of grand larceny. If the present state of affairs continues much longer the coal thief can pose as a "captain of industry."

ROOSEVELT is still doing strenuous stunts in the appointment and retention of negro postmasters in the South. Why doesn't he give the Northern people a dose of dusky officeholders?—Cynthiana Times.

Attention, Farmers!

Having taken charge of the business, that has in the past been known as Haggard & Speaks, I will endeavor to make my establishment one of the best in Central Kentucky.
